

Announcement of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok
On the University's Temporary Closure due to the Spread of Coronavirus 2019
(No. 14)

As King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok has issued the announcement on the university's temporary closure due to the spread of coronavirus 2019 (No. 13) dated 13 September 2021, in order to prevent the spread of the disease, the university regards it necessary to extend the closure period.

By virtue of Section 31 (3) of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok's Act B.E. 2550, the university deems it appropriate to issue the announcement as follows:

1. The personnel of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok (Bangkok Campus, Prachinburi Campus, Rayong Campus and Human Resource Training Center for Industry Maptaput) shall fully work at home from 1 to 10 October 2021. Only in case of emergency or necessity, in order to ensure the sufficiency of the university's or office's operation, the supervisors may order any staff to station at the office.
2. For other areas that are not specified in this announcement, the personnel shall follow the practices as specified in Section 2, 4, 5, 6 and 7 of the Announcement of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok on the University's Temporary Closure due to the Spread of Coronavirus 2019 (No. 7) dated 28 June 2021.

This announcement takes effect from 1 to 10 October 2021 or until the newly issued announcement specifies otherwise.

Announced on 29 September 2021

(Prof. Dr.-Ing. habil. Suchart Siengchin)

President of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok
