

KMUTNB

Announcement of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok

On the University's Temporary Closure due to the Recurring Spread of Coronavirus 2019

(No. 7)

As King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok has issued the announcement on the university's temporary closure due to the recurring spread of coronavirus 2019 (No. 6) dated 14 June 2021, it is apparent that the coronavirus 2019 disease is still widely spread in Bangkok and other provinces, while the numbers of people being infected by the disease has also gradually increased. The university regards it necessary to extend the closure period.

By virtue of Section 31 (3) of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok's Act B.E. 2550, the university deems it appropriate to issue the announcement as follows:

1. King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok (Bangkok Campus, Prachinburi Campus, Rayong Campus and Human Resource Training Center for Industry Maptaput) will be temporarily closed from 1 – 27 July 2021
2. The academic sections in Bangkok Campus, Prachinburi Campus and Rayong Campus shall offer all courses by means of online platforms.
3. The personnel of King Mongkut's University of Technology North Bangkok in Bangkok Campus, Rayong Campus, Prachinburi Campus and Human Resource Training Center for Industry Maptaput, shall work from home during 1 – 27 July 2021.

The heads of working sections or offices shall consider to assign work to each staff according to their duties, but the staff while working from home has to be ready for receiving communications or orders from their supervisors or relevant people at all time. In case of emergency or necessity, in order to ensure the sufficiency of the university's or office's operation, the supervisors can call for an online meeting or consult with any staff by means of electronic platform at all time during office hours, or may order any staff to station at the office as necessary by an approval of the supervising Vice President or head of the office.

The staff who finds it necessary to work at the university has to strictly observe the protective measures against the spread of coronavirus 2019 as specified by the Ministry of Public Health and to follow social distancing measures.

4. The students has to avoid traveling or engaging in any activities in the crowded places, and to closely follow information or announcement released by the university.
5. The university personnel has to strictly avoid traveling without necessary causes.
6. The arrangement of any activities that will result in a mass gathering both inside and outside the university has to be suspended, or it may be arranged by means of online platform.
7. The university's personnel has to strictly observe this announcement.
8. In case that any problems arise from the implementation of this announcement, the Vice President in charge of supervising the office has the authority to make a decision as appropriate and report the case to the President.

This announcement takes effect from 1 - 27 July 2021 or until the newly issued announcement specifies otherwise.

Announced on 28 May 2021

(Prof. Dr.-Ing. habil. Suchart Siengchin)

President of King Mongkut's University of Technology, North Bangkok